STAFF REPORT TO COUNCIL

Report No: AD-2019-13

June 10, 2019

From: Sarah Huskinson – Chief Administrative Officer/ Clerk

RE: Ontario Trillium Fund

Recommended Motion:

THAT the Council of the Township of North Glengarry receives Staff Report No. AD-2019-12;

And THAT the Council of the Township of North Glengarry authorizes the Chief Administrative Officer/ Clerk to apply for funding with the Ontario Trillium Fund in collaboration with the Glengarry County Archives and the Township of South Glengarry.

Background / Analysis:

Council approved the purchase of the property located at 28 Kenyon in Alexandria in partnership with the Township of South Glengarry for the purposes of housing the Glengarry County Archives. As part of the overall funding of the archives building project, a grant from the Ontario Trillium Fund was expected. However, it was determined in consultation with OTF that the County Archives are not an approved applicant and if an application was to be submitted, it would need to be from one of the partner municipalities. Since South Glengarry was planning on applying in 2019 and North Glengarry was not, it was decided that North Glengarry would be the primary applicant and the archives and South Glengarry be collaborative partners.

If approved by Council, the application will be drafted by the County Archives, through Allan MacDonald, and submitted by the CAO/Clerk of the Township of North Glengarry. The deadline for the application is June 12th. There are no direct costs to either Township in association with this application.

A collaborative agreement with North Glengarry, the County Archives and South Glengarry will also be drafted and circulated to all parties. This collaborative agreement is required for the application and was already planned to be drafted for the archives building project.

Alternatives:

Option 1: THAT Council authorizes the Chief Administrative Officer/ Clerk to apply for funding with the Ontario Trillium Fund in collaboration with the Glengarry County Archives and the Township of South Glengarry.

Option 2: THAT Council does not authorize the Chief Administrative Officer/ Clerk to apply for funding with the Ontario Trillium Fund in collaboration with the Glengarry County Archives and the Township of South Glengarry.

STAFF REPORT TO COUNCIL

Report No: CS-2019-17

June 10, 2019

From: Anne Leduc – Director of Community Services

RE: Listing of the non-designated property located at 2655 Wylie Road North, Glen Robertson on the Municipal Register

Recommended Motion:

THAT Council receives Staff Report No. CS 2019-17; and

THAT Council directs staff to add the property located at 2655 Wylie Road North, Glen Robertson Ontario, as recommended by the Arts, Culture and Heritage Committee, to the Municipal Register as a non-designated property of cultural heritage value and/or interest.

Background / Analysis:

The Arts, Culture and Heritage Committee has received a request from the owner of the property located at 2655 Wylie Road North, Glen Robertson to list this non-designated property on the Township's Municipal Register.

The Township's Community Improvement Plan (CIP), pursuant to Phase III: Commercial fringe areas, Industrial zones, and identified buildings of significant heritage interest, came into force on January 1, 2019. The goal of Phase III is to beautify the commercial fringe areas that service the Township, to encourage the physical enhancement of the industrial park, and to preserve and restore residential and non-residential buildings that have been identified in the North Glengarry Heritage Register as being of important heritage significance to the region.

Owners of properties such as the one located at 2655 Wylie Road North, Glen Robertson, can elect to undergo an evaluation process overseen by the Arts, Culture and Heritage Committee, that will assess if their property meets the criteria to be listed on the Municipal Register.

Acceptance for listing would in turn allow the property owner to apply for CIP funding. Listing the property on the Municipal Register does not automatically guarantee access to CIP funding. As per all requests to the CIP program, applicants must meet all program requirements, including an evaluation by the Arts, Culture and Heritage

Committee who will in turn recommend (or not) that Council approves funding for the property.

After review of the Request for Listing Form for 2655 Wylie Road North, Glen Robertson, the Arts, Culture and Heritage Committee recommends that Council approves the listing of 2655 Wylie Road North, Glen Robertson, as a non-designated property on the Township's Municipal Register.

Alternatives:

Option 1 – Recommended – That Council approves the listing of the property as a non-designated property on the Municipal Register.

Or

Option 2 – Not recommended – That Council not approve the listing of this property on the Municipal Register.

Financial Implications:

There are no costs associated with the listing of non-designated properties on the Township's Municipal Register.

Attachments & Relevant Legislation:

Request for Listing Form – 2655 Wylie Road North, Glen Robertson

Historic Building 1: The Log Barn

Location from 1918 to present: Front yard, 2655 Wylie Road, North Glengarry Township

The building referred to as "The Log Barn" is located on a 50-acre property owned by William Donald Douglass. This is the southwest quarter of the original Lot 13, Concession 4 of Lochiel Township, which was 200 acres spanning the north and south of Glen Sandfield Road, and now bounded on the western side by Wylie Road and on the southern side by Menard Road.

Mr. Douglass bought the property with his wife, Carol Natalia Douglass, from Henri Brunet on September 20, 1973 for $9500; the Ontario Land Registry registration number for the sale is 28612. (See: <https://www.onland.ca/ui/14/books/48821/viewer/289018408?page=103>) The property has one residential home and three historic buildings: the log barn; the pig pen; and a very large barn, which stands south of the property's two log buildings and dates from the 1920s.

Visual Description (including information on style, major exterior features, environment, and condition)

This is a hand-squared log structure, one storey high, with an attic that was originally inhabited by the Brunet family as a second storey (sleeping quarters) under the roof. The logs are sealed with chinking. The original roof has been replaced with a tin roof. The internal walls are whitewashed. The internal floor is currently cement. The original internal beams and historic wood framing of the ground floor ceiling, attic floor, and roof are still present, but have been concealed by a dropped ceiling. The building has two long windows, in the east and south walls. It has three doors, in the east, north, and south walls. Approx. measurement of building: 16 feet long by 11 feet wide.

Brief Historical Summary (additional supporting documents can be attached to this form)

BUILDING DATE: circa 1918. This building, known by the current owner as the 'log barn,' can be dated as follows. After the Crown, the lot's first owner was Donald McDonald, who purchased 100 acres south of what is now Glen Sandfield Road, on November 19, 1823 (Ontario Land Registry registration number 1163). From that time until 1918, the property was in Scottish hands. The log barn is original to the property. It has never been moved. The Brunets told my father that their ancestors constructed the building. My father was also told by neighbours that the log barn was built in French style. The main characteristic to which they referred in order to determine this was the way the interlocks were formed at the corners of the building. The logs at their interlocking ends have fan-shaped dovetail joints, which are more stable than squared box joints. My father was told the latter box joint style was favoured by the Scots. I have not confirmed if the French farmers did indeed prefer this construction method, but have contacted Dunvegan Museum regarding people who can verify this detail and who possibly examine the building. To date the log barn, I matched the reported French style of the building to land registry records. Records confirm that this 50-acre lot changed from Scottish to French hands in 1918, after which it became a French-owned property for several decades. The first French owner of the west half of lot 13 was Isaie Sauvé Jr. in a bargain and sale, transferred from Alex B. McDonald on May 20, 1918 (Ontario Land Registry registration number 12153). The lot was shortly sold thereafter to Oliver Brunet on September 18, 1918 in a bargain and sale (Ontario Land Registry registration number 12221) and thereafter remained a Brunet property until 1973, when it was sold to the present owner. (See: <https://www.onland.ca/ui/14/books/48821/viewer/305860905?page=102>) Given this history and the remarks of the Brunets in the 1970s, it is likely that the log barn dates from the initial period of Brunet ownership, to house the family, and later their animals. I assume that the builder of the log barn was Oliver Brunet. The following passage confirms the progression of usage of log buildings as initial dwellings for settlers; after a house was constructed on a property, the log structures would be used as piggeries or cow barns. From the Tenth Annual Volume of the Glengarry Historical Society, 1970-1971: "The original shanty or log house which sheltered the family when they first arrived on their wild lot still remains but has degraded [sic] into a piggery; the more substantial log house ... became a chapel of ease to the stable or cow-house; the glaring and staring bright red brick house is brought forward close upon the road that frame dwelling ... serves as a kitchen." (from: Edwin C. Guillet, Early Life in Upper Canada (Toronto: The Ontario Publishing Co., Ltd., 1933), p. 176). (source: <http://glengarryhistory.ca/new/wp-content/uploads/GL7071N10r.pdf>, internal page 19 (PDF page 20))The newsletter places the dates of log structures for Scottish settlers in an earlier period, circa 1830s-1850s. But when William Donald Douglass bought the property, the Brunets confirmed that they built the log barn while constructing their main wood house. The Brunet family originally slept upstairs in the log barn, in attic rooms. They had a wood stove on the main floor, although there is no sign of a hole for the stovepipe because east and west outer attic walls have been replaced. After the house was built, the family used the log barn for livestock. The Brunets' main house was probably built between the late 1920s and early 1940s; it was demolished between 1974 and 1977, and was replaced with the current house on the same site, built 1977 to 1980.

Character-defining Features (include any historical material, cladding, or architectural elements)

The building has hand-squared logs, with axe and adze marks clearly visible. By the 1970s, the log barn had a metal roof. But it may have had an earlier wood shingle roof. The log barn's outer attic wall boards, erected above the log walls to support the metal roof, had hay-mow-type doors for upper entry; the boards developed holes which the Brunets patched and decorated with dozens of Quebec and Ontario auto licence plates from the 1950s. William Donald Douglass removed these and unfortunately did not preserve them. In the 1970s, the log barn still bore signs of early human habitation: it had corn husk dolls nailed to the rafters. Whether these were toys for the Brunet girls or not, my parents were told that the girls placed the dolls there as angelic talismans to protect and bless the building. These were woven into the shape of women wearing long dresses. The dolls resembled traditional Native American, specifically Iroquois design (see: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Corn\_husk\_doll#/media/File:Corn\_husk\_doll.jpg). There is one horse shoe inserted in the end of one of the logs on the west side of the building. There is also an iron hook attached in the same area, presumably to tether animals.

Modifications to the Property

Between 1975 and 1998, Carol Natalia Douglass, half-owner of the property, ran the Canadian Registered kennel, Rionnageal Irish Wolfhounds, on the property. To accommodate kennel usage, Mrs. Douglass renovated and modified the log barn. From 1985 to 1989, a ceiling was built into the log barn, dropped below the original ceiling and below the supporting beams and rafters. I do not know if the corn husk dolls are still there and tacked to the rafters above the current dropped ceiling, or if they were removed during the 1980s' renovation. In addition, Mrs. Douglass put new tin on the roof; and new doors on the back and front original doorways on the north and south walls. She also added a door on the eastern wall. The eastern doorway may or may not have already been there. Natalia Douglass added a cement floor. She put in new windows, expanding the original window frames on the east and south walls of the building. New chinking was inserted inside and outside between the logs, with chicken wire inserted inside the chinking to keep the chinking in place. This technique has proven very successful, and the chinking up to 2019 remains in good condition. Two half-doors were added into the east and south sides of the building, to allow the Irish Wolfhounds to come and go from the log barn. Four compartments were built inside the building, using two-by-fours and chain link fencing. These provided shelter for the dogs during inclement weather. The dogs used the building only rarely, during storms. Thus, the interior of the building remained clean and in very good repair. Since Mrs. Douglass's death in 2000, the building was used only to house a few tools. At the time of 1980s' renovations, the attic was filled with insulation and straw bales, then sealed. The northwest part of the tin roof was bent by a fallen tree, circa 2010. By the 2010s, the attic sometimes housed raccoons; the animals ripped a little hole for entry near the roof damage. They also damaged the internal ceiling at the northwest corner. This damage, roof and ceiling, were repaired in 2017.

Building at far right is the "log barn" built circa 1918 by the Brunet family. The property was first settled by Donald McDonald, who purchased 100 acres of land on November 19, 1823.

Historic Building 2: "The Pig Pen"

Location from circa 1900 to 1981: Western corner of Wylie Road and Menard Road 'T' junction (formerly designated as top northeast corner, Lot 14, Concession 3, Lochiel Township)

The pig pen was saved from demolition at its original location (Lots 14 and 15, Concession 3 of Lochiel Township) in 1980 when Mr. Douglass purchased that neighbouring property. In 1981, he moved the pig pen to its current position in his front yard.

Location from 1981 to present: Front yard, 2655 Wylie Road, North Glengarry Township (formerly designated as Lot 13, Concession 4, Lochiel Township, western 50-acre portion of lot)

The present owner, William Donald Douglass, called this building the 'pig pen,' after he housed four pigs in the structure, circa 1981. It is now used to house lawn mowers and lawn tractors.

Visual Description (including information on style, major exterior features, environment, and condition)

This is a round log structure with many historical details. The logs are sealed with chinking. It has rough wooden window and door frames, with one door on the south-facing wall. There is original iron metal work hardware on doors and windows. Two horseshoes were stuck in the ends of logs for luck. It has two small windows (approx. size: 26" x 26") on the south-facing wall, and one small window (approx. size: 28" long and 18" high) on the north-facing wall. The roof is supported by rafters and was originally had lateral boards supporting a wood shingle covering. The roof rafters remain, but the outer roof is now replaced with tin. Approximate size of building: 9' wide by 11' long.

Brief Historical Summary (additional supporting documents can be attached to this form)

Simeon and Napoleon Seguin owned the original location of the building, starting June 6, 1899, when they purchased the property from James McDonald and wife (land registration number 7737). Between 1899 and January 21, 1908 the property belonged to the Seguin family. The building dates from this period. The land was sold in 1908 by Simeon Seguin to James J. McDonald (land registration number 9893). By the 1970s and 1980s, the original property on which the building was located was known locally as 'the Brown Farm,' because Edward Brown bought it on October 29, 1956 (land registration number 19103). William Donald Douglass and Carol Natalia Douglass bought the Brown Farm on November 19, 1980 (land registration number 49410). The building remained on the Brown Farm at Lot 14, Concession 3 of Lochiel Township until spring, 1981. It was then moved to its present location at 2655 Wylie Road. BUILDING DATE: circa 1900As with the other log building on his property, William Donald Douglass was told by neighbours that the pig pen was built in French style. The main characteristic to which they referred in order to determine this was the way the interlocks were formed at the corners of the building. The logs at their interlocking ends have fan-shaped dovetail joints, which are more stable than squared box joints. My father was told the latter box joint style was favoured by the Scots. I have contacted Dunvegan Museum to see if this detail is correct. To date the pig pen, I matched the reported French style of the building to land registry records (<https://www.onland.ca/ui/14/books/48820/viewer/320413752?page=84>). Records confirm that the north part of the Lot 14, Concession 3 of Lochiel Township, where the building was originally located, changed from Scottish (McDonald) to French (Seguin) hands on June 6, 1899, after which it became a French-owned property until 1908 (see land registration numbers 7737 and 9893). After 1908, the property was mainly Scottish or Irish-owned. I assume that Simeon and Napoleon Seguin built the pig pen. I cannot confirm if the building was always used as a barn, or if it was initially inhabited by the Seguins.

Character-defining Features (include any historical material, cladding, or architectural elements)

The building has three original rough wood window frames, with one big, east-facing side door and one south-facing normal-sized front door, spanned by two small square windows. It originally had a wood shingle roof, replaced with tin around 1982. See attached photo for a side view of the shingle roof, in 1981. The original wood framing and timbers for the roof remain, along with their original nails. These details are visible inside the structure. See attached photos. The hardware on the doors and windows is original, with handmade iron handles. The nails have square heads which look like they were made at a blacksmith's. The north-facing rectangular window has an outer rough screen (not dating to 1899-1908, possibly dating to the 1970s) which opens independently on the outside of the building, while an internal wooden shutter also opens and shuts independently. There are three iron loops driven into the bottom of the inside north wall to tie cows or horses to the wall. There are two iron horseshoes stuck into the ends of outer logs, for luck, a superstition to protect the structure.

Modifications to the Property

The big, east-facing side door was replaced with a plywood door in 1982. The building originally had a wood shingle roof, replaced with tin around 1982. The chinking was repaired in 1982, but requires replacement, as do some of the logs.

STAFF REPORT TO COUNCIL

Report No: CS-2019-18

June 10, 2019

From: Anne Leduc – Director of Community Services

RE: Listing of the non-designated property located at 72 Kenyon Street West, Alexandria on the Municipal Register

Recommended Motion:

THAT Council receives Staff Report No. CS 2019-18; and

THAT Council directs staff to add the property located at 72 Kenyon Street West, Alexandria Ontario, as recommended by the Arts, Culture and Heritage Committee, to the Municipal Register as a non-designated property of cultural heritage value and/or interest.

Background / Analysis:

The Arts, Culture and Heritage Committee has received a request from the owner of the property located at 72 Kenyon Street West, Alexandria to list this non-designated property on the Township's Municipal Register.

The Township's Community Improvement Plan (CIP), pursuant to Phase III: Commercial fringe areas, Industrial zones, and identified buildings of significant heritage interest, came into force on January 1, 2019. The goal of Phase III is to beautify the commercial fringe areas that service the Township, to encourage the physical enhancement of the industrial park, and to preserve and restore residential and non-residential buildings that have been identified in the North Glengarry Heritage Register as being of important heritage significance to the region.

Owners of properties such as the one located at 72 Kenyon Street West, Alexandria, can elect to undergo an evaluation process overseen by the Arts, Culture and Heritage Committee, that will assess if their property meets the criteria to be listed on the Municipal Register.

Acceptance for listing would in turn allow the property owner to apply for CIP funding. Listing the property on the Municipal Register does not automatically guarantee access to CIP funding. As per all requests to the CIP program, applicants must meet all program requirements, including an evaluation by the Arts, Culture and Heritage

Committee who will in turn recommend (or not) that Council approves funding for the property.

After review of the Request for Listing Form for 72 Kenyon Street West, Alexandria, the Arts, Culture and Heritage Committee recommends that Council approves the listing of 72 Kenyon Street West, Alexandria, as a non-designated property on the Township's Municipal Register.

Alternatives:

Option 1 – Recommended – That Council approves the listing of the property as a non-designated property on the Municipal Register.

Or

Option 2 – Not recommended – That Council not approve the listing of this property on the Municipal Register.

Financial Implications:

There are no costs associated with the listing of non-designated properties on the Township's Municipal Register.

Attachments & Relevant Legislation:

Request for Listing Form – 72 Kenyon Street West, Alexandria

- The first time this property was sold was on October 2, 1885 when the Hn. D.A. MacDonald sold the property to Almer A. Allen for $700.
- According to the "Dictionary of Glengarry Biography", written by Royce MacGillivray and printed by the Glengarry Historical Society (pg. 291)., Hn. D.A. MacDonald appears to be a reference to the Honourable D.A. MacDonald. According to this reference, "At one of the 19th-century GC's most memorable celebrations, the great ball and supper held in Alexandria, 1857, on the completion of the Hon. D.A. MacDonald's steam mill."
- On Page 292, the Honourable Donald Alexander MacDonald (Born February 17, 1872 and Died on June 10, 1896) is listed as a businessman and political figure who went by "D.A."
- "He was educated at Bishop MacDonell's college at St. Raphael's and at the Williamstown grammar school. He was engaged early in life in the construction of the Beauharnois Canal in Quebec. In 1844, he settled in Alexandria and there, over the years he operated a variety of businesses, including a gristmill, sawmill, general store and ashery, and for a time, a bank, or at least the Ontario Bank, Alexandria's first bank, was allowed to operate out of an office at the back of his store. He bought Lot 38, 2nd Concession of Lochiel Township, in 1844 and in 1857 he bought part of Lot 37 in that concession. The former lot had been Clergy Reserve land granted in 1831 to Bishop MACDONELL, and the latter lot was originally part of the UEL grant to "Spanish John" MACDONELL, and they now formed the townsite of Alexandria which therefore grew up substantially on land Macdonald owned. Starting with a building already in existence there, he built "Garry Fen" as his residence in Alexandria: not a mansion, but a comfortable house which has been a landmark of Alexandria.... D.A. MacDonald was elected in 1857 to represent GC in the legislature of the province of Canada and served till 1867, being re-elected in 1861 and 1863. He strongly opposed Confederation, but once in the new system was in place, he worked with it loyally. At Confederation, he was elected MP for GC by acclamation in 1867 and he continued as MP until 1875, being re-elected in 1872, 1873 and 1874. He served from 1873 – 1875 at Postmaster General in the administration of Alexander Mackenzie.

ing the optimistic newspaper report just cited, problems in the lumber business ended his GC farming, just as cash from the lumber business—unless the initial cash was from railway contracting after all—made it possible in the first place.

D. A. (Big Dan) McDonald left GC, and nothing has been discovered about his final years. Recent enquiries showed that some people still remembered his role as a farmer but that it was believed there were no local relatives.

Holstein 3, 5, 40 (QF) and sources as stated above

MACDONALD, DONALD ALEXANDER (17 Feb. 1817-10 June 1896), businessman, political figure. (Hon. D. A. Macdonald, the miller, the governor, "Donald Sandfield," D. A. Macdonald (Sandfield) ) (Clarence OSTROM says he was commonly known as "D. A." It is surprising that Clarence OSTROM also states that he spelled his name McDonald, and it is unlikely that Ostrom would have made this mistake if he had not had some evidence for it.) Born at St. Raphael's, GC. Parents: Alexander Macdonald and his wife Nancy Macdonald. He was the second youngest of the "Sandfield" brothers, brother of Alexander F., John Sandfield and Ranald S. MACDONALD.

He was educated at Bishop Macdonell's college at St. Raphael's, and at the Williamstown grammar school. He was engaged early in life in the construction of the Illinois Canal, then was a contractor on building the Beauharnois Canal in Quebec. In 1844, he settled in Alexandria, and there over the years he operated a variety of businesses, including a gristmill, sawmill, general store and ashery, and for a time, a bank, or at least the Ontario Bank, Alexandria's first bank, was allowed to operate out of an office at the back of his store. He bought Lot 38, 2nd Concession of Lochiel Township, in 1844, and in 1857 he bought part of Lot 37 in that concession. The former lot had been Clergy Reserve land granted in 1831 to Bishop MACDONELL, and the latter lot was originally part of the UEL grant to "Spanish John" MACDONELL, and they now formed the townsite of Alexandria, which therefore grew up substantially on land Macdonald owned. Starting with a building already in existence there, he built "Garry Fen" as his residence in Alexandria: not a mansion, but a comfortable house which has long been a landmark in Alexandria. Among his other enterprises, Macdonald also operated a general store at Lancaster. While at Alexandria, he had an important contract in the mid-1850s on building an aqueduct for the Montreal waterworks. The Montreal Pilot of 25 May 1855 reported, "We understand that 500 laborers and mechanics are now employed by Messrs. D. A. MacDonald & Co., on the line of the Aqueduct of the Montreal Water Works." The writer thought that "with such a force, and the extensive machinery used" the work should be completed this season. In the middle of the 1850s, too, he shared with his brothers John Sandfield MACDONALD and Ranald MACDONALD the contract for building the Grand Trunk Railway across GC, between Montreal and a point near Cornwall.

He was married (1) on 8 Jan. 1844 to Margaret Josephine MacDonell, whose father Duncan MacDonell was a lumber merchant and had a store at St. Andrew's West. She died in the year of her marriage, 1844, and (2) on 10 Jan. 1846 at Fraserfield, to Catherine Grant Fraser (b. 13 Sept. 1821; d. at Alexandria 9 Oct. 1865), whose father was Col. Alexander FRASER of Fraserfield. Four young sons of this second marriage died of diphtheria, 1863-1865, predeceasing their mother. She was survived by one son and four daughters.

Though a Roman Catholic, in 1854 he became involved in an acrimonious dispute with the priest at Alexandria, Fr John MCLACHLAN, on the question of separate schools, which Macdonald opposed. This dispute did not become part of the published historical record in books and an "accepted" part of the GC story until the publication of Bruce W. Hodgins' life of Sandfield Macdonald in 1971. (See also A. LANGCAKE)

D. A. Macdonald was elected in 1857 to represent GC in the legislature of the Province of Canada and served till 1867, being re-elected in 1861 and 1863. He strongly opposed Confederation, but once the new system was in place, he worked with it loyally. At Confederation, he was elected MP for GC by acclamation in 1867, and he continued as MP till 1875, being re-elected in 1872, 1873 and 1874. He served from 7 Nov. 1873 to 17 May 1875 as postmaster general in the administration of Alexander Mackenzie. Rather strangely, he is the only GC native ever to serve in the federal cabinet. In 1875, leaving the cabinet and Parliament, he became lieutenant-governor of Ontario. He served in that position from 18 May 1875 to 30 June 1880.

The Scottish journalist Alexander MACKENZIE in his tour of 1879 called on Macdonald at Government House, Toronto, and found him "exceedingly pleasant and affable, and quite able and willing to converse with me in Gaelic as well as in English....He is a tall, good-looking man, with a fine open countenance, most unassuming and agreeable in manner..."

Re: Zoning Amendment Z-01-2019 – Reconvene from February 11th/2019

Owner: Wilko Finger

Property Location: CON 7 PART LOT 13 (21695 Laggan-Glenelg Rd., Dalkeith)

Official Plan designation: Mixed

Zoning designation: General Agricultural (AG) & Flood Plain (FP)

Purpose of application: Is to re-zone both the severed and retained portion subject to Consent Application B-93/18. Whereas the severed portion is to be re-zoned from Agricultural (AG) to Agricultural Special Exception 176 (AG-176) to;

- prohibit agricultural uses;
- recognize the existing barn as an accessory building and not a livestock facility and permit an accessory building taller than 5m in height and;
- permit a 0.3m setback from the interior side yard.

AND, the retained lot is to be re-zoned from Agricultural (AG) to Agricultural Special Exception 177 (AG-177) to;

- prohibit residential development and;

- acknowledge the shortage of minimum required frontage from the required 200 meters to the proposed 91.74 meters.

Discussion: This office had presented this request from Mr. Wilko Finger during the February 11th public meeting which at that time it was decided to defer the application until the applicant was able to prove the exact distance from the barn to the interior side yard property line. Upon further review, it was determined that the applicant also required additional relief from our Municipal Zoning By-Law which indicates a shortage from the interior side yard setback from the required 12 meters to the proposed 0.3 meters and also to re zone the property in accordance with the conditions imposed on his severance application. The property in question consists of 99 acres of Agricultural Designated land. The applicant received conditional approval from the Counties of SD&G on December 19th 2018, to sever off 3.55 acres of land deemed surplus to the needs of the farm.

As per the Provincial Policy Statement 2014, lot creation in prime agricultural areas is discouraged and may only be permitted in certain circumstances. A residence surplus to a farming operation is the most common reason and is applicable to this application provided that:

- The new lot will be limited to a minimum size needed to accommodate the use and appropriate sewage and water services

AND

- The planning authority ensures that new residential dwellings are prohibited on any remnant parcel or farmland created by the severance.

Recommendation: It is the recommendation of the planning department that the application Z-01-2019 be forwarded to the Council of the Township of North Glengarry for further consideration and approval.

Re: Zoning Amendment Z-04-2019

Owner: 1945154 ONT INC.

Property Location: CON 19 IL PART LOT 3, 4 (18331 Kenyon Concession Road 8)

Official Plan designation: Mixed

Zoning designation: Agricultural Special Exception (AG-114)

Purpose of application: Is to re-zone both the severed and retained portion subject to Consent Application B-17/19.

Whereas the retained portion is to be re-zoned from Agricultural-Special Exception (AG-114) to Agricultural-Special Exception (AG-179);

- to prohibit residential development;
- to acknowledge the shortage of minimum required interior side yard setback from the required 12 meters to the proposed 6.4 meters and;
- to permit the operation of a commercial cabinet manufacturing facility in addition to the permitted uses listed in the Agricultural designation (existing exception – AG-114).

And whereas the severed portion is to be re-zoned from Agricultural-Special Exception (AG-114) to Agricultural-Special Exception (AG-178) to;

- to prohibit agricultural uses and;

- acknowledge the shortage of minimum required rear yard setback from the required 15 meters to the proposed 7 meters.

Discussion: This office has received a request from 1945154 ONT INC. to re-zone a property in accordance with the conditions imposed on severance application B-17/19. The property in question consists of approximately 55 acres of Agricultural Designated land. It has a single family dwelling unit and 2 larger buildings used for the operation of a commercial cabinet manufacturing facility.

The applicant received conditional approval from the Counties of SD&G (B-17/19) on Monday, April 15, 2019, to sever off 2.48 acres of land deemed surplus to the needs of the farm lands/ commercial cabinet manufacturing facility. 52.67 acres would be retained for the commercial cabinet manufacturing facility along with the farm land.

One of the conditions of the Counties of SD&G Consent Application (B-17/19 – Condition No.2) is that the owner obtains a Zoning Amendment, as per Provincial Policy Statement 2014 for a lot creation in an agricultural area and to acknowledge the deficiencies for the minimum setbacks required in the Zoning By-law.

Another condition of the Counties of SD&G Consent Application (B-17/19 – Condition No.5) is that the owner/applicant is to install a septic system on the severed portion. The current septic system serves both the single family dwelling and the commercial cabinet manufacturing facility. As per applicable law, a septic system serving a single family dwelling unit should be located on the same parcel of land, and should be compliant with Ontario Building Code. The applicant has already applied for a new septic system and it was approved by the Township of North Glengarry Building Department.

Other conditions of the Counties of SD&G Consent Application (B-17/19 – Condition No.6 & 7) is that the owner/applicant is to install a new well to serve the single family dwelling unit on the severed portion and to create and register an easement on the severed portion for the existing well, located across the road, which would serve the commercial cabinet manufacturing facility on the retained portion. The owner/applicant will instead dig a new well on the retained portion to serve the commercial cabinet manufacturing facility located on the same parcel, and use the existing only for the single family dwelling unit so that no easement is required.

As per the Provincial Policy Statement 2014, lot creation in prime agricultural areas is discouraged and may only be permitted in certain circumstances. A residence surplus to a farming operation is the most common reason and is applicable to this application provided that:

- The new lot will be limited to a minimum size needed to accommodate the use and appropriate sewage and water services

AND

- The planning authority ensures that new residential dwellings are prohibited on any remnant parcel or farmland created by the severance.

Recommendation: It is the recommendation of the planning department that the application Z-04-2019 be forwarded to the Council of the Township of North Glengarry for further consideration and approval.
